

Dutch 166

Anne Frank and After:

Dutch Literature of the Holocaust in English Translation

Wikimedia Commons, Dagboek van Anne Frank, 28 sep 1942

Fall 2023 | M-W-F 12-1pm | 4 units | Prof. Jeroen Dewulf

This course offers a critical reflection on Anne Frank's famous diary in the context of the Nazi occupation of the Netherlands. Using film and literature, it studies the German invasion, the resistance and collaboration, the horrors of the Nazi regime, the Holocaust, and the post-war debate on World War II in Dutch society.

For more information, contact the instructor:

Jeroen Dewulf
jdewulf@berkeley.edu
5329 Dwinelle Hall / 207 Philosophy Hall

Fall
2023