Spring | Tu-Th 2-3:30PM | 4 units | Prof. Mark Vancauteran

The aim of this course is to better understand the interdependence of regions and globalization from an economic, political and cultural perspective. It is designed as a multidisciplinary exploration suitable for students from diverse academic backgrounds. Although the main focus will be on Belgium, the course will also pay attention to other multilingual and multiethnic countries. No prior knowledge or foreign language skills are required.
