

Dutch 2 Intermediate Dutch

Spring 2025 | MW 2-4pm & F 2-3pm | 5 units

In Dutch 2, students' knowledge of Dutch vocabulary and grammar will be expanded and put into practice. As in Dutch 1, the focus lies on further developing speaking and writing skills. Each week is dedicated to a theme, which forms the heart of the readings and discussions. Students will be able to engage in conversations in Dutch and write about various topics covered in class. Topics include geography of the Netherlands, the Dutch cuisine, history, painting in the Golden Age, the constitutional monarchy, national holidays and traditions, Vincent van Gogh, and more. Students will conclude this semester by giving a short presentation in Dutch.

Prerequisites: Dutch 1 or equivalent. This class will be offered on Zoom AND in person.

For more information, visit dutch.berkeley.edu or contact the instructor:

Esmée van der Hoeven
ievanderhoeven@berkeley.edu

Spring 2025